OSG Council,

One of the requests made at the last Council meeting was to see the OSG usage by science with all physics removed so that we could see some of the fields that get hidden by the large physics usage.

Brian now provides a graph of usage by science, excluding all physics. Here is the result for the last year:

Or, if you want to create a different graph, here is the link:

Below are the hours for the year by Science sorted by Science and by Wall Hours (eliminating other and DN not recorded):
